May 2019 Newsletter

May Think Tank Winner!

Each time students work with a tutor, they fill out a slip describing what they worked on during their session. At the end of the month, one slip is drawn. The chosen student and tutor each receive a Wawa gift card. This past month, our student Nina and her tutor, Maria, won! They worked on making graphic organizers into amazing writing.

Staff Highlight: Meet Brittani

Brittani graduated from East Carolina University with a degree in Middle Grades Education, with concentrations in mathematics and science. She is currently a building substitute at Avon Grove Charter School. Brittani enjoys hanging out with her family, traveling and playing with her dog.

From the Desk of Cris Fick:

The summer can be a time of change for students- but not always good change! As the remaining weeks of school wind down, it's good to consider a way to prevent summer brain drain and keep students engaged with academics and their peers. Consider summer camps that include a significant academic component or tutoring to catch up on tricky topics or get ahead of the pack in a subject area.

A message to the family of 2019 grads:

Congratulations to the students who will be walking across that stage in the coming weeks and receiving their diplomas. We're proud to see so many students we've worked with at some point in their academic careers succeeding and growing. To their parents, congratulations for the work that you did to make sure your child was able to succeed in this huge accomplishment. Whether we've worked with you at Fick Education or not, we recognize how much work was needed to get where you are today, and we wish you the best of luck in your future endeavors!

YOU ROCK!

- Cris Fick and the staff at FES

Book of the Month: Now What? by Nicholas Lore

We're focusing on those students currently graduating or thinking about their post-high school life. Written for students, this book provides universal advice on how to choose a career path that will lead to excitement to go to work, a professional life that fits your personal, and success in any career field. Come take a peek at a few chapters while in our FES office.
